the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million (1990–1999) (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the health care needs of older people, and the importance of the role of the general practitioner (GP) in this regard. The GP is the first point of contact for many older people, and is often the only health care professional they see.

The purpose of this study was to explore the experiences of GPs in the UK in providing care for older people.

The study was carried out in the context of a larger study of the experiences of GPs in providing care for older people.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Any organization the size of R.H.S. needs an alert board of control. It is its job to plot the course of its officers and trainees. D. Delos Dean, a lawyer of our community, Dr. Harry English and William Campbell, publisher and printer, perform their highly important duties with diligence. Their Articles of War by which they govern are matters of common sense prepared for the good of all teachers and students.

We salute you cooperative civilians.

Strategy

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Cleaveland and Mr. Holt in charge of our basic training center do a stupendous job with precision and skill. They guide us sympathetically and wisely in these principles: watch your attitude, do your work, respect your superiors, and try to get along with your fellow students.

We salute these officers.

Dear Bud,

Since last year our company has been advanced one more rank. We feel mighty important now. We are all sporting our new finger hardware which is our distinctive class insignia.

Our mission for the year has been successfully completed. In our recreational program our company's soldiers gave brilliant accounts of themselves. In football Lintner, Hudson, Robinson, and Brooks won the distinguished service badge. In basketball Lintner and Fellmy displayed enough fight to be ranked ace-high. Our class play brought down the cheers of the whole camp. Our Military Ball was rated among the best of R.H.S.

I have missed seeing you around Lunghi's where the old gang still meets. We are all pulling for you.

Your pal,

Ken.

My dear dad and mother,

Another year has slipped by and at last we feel that we really belong to our vast army. The part we play is only small now but we are being trained daily for bigger and more important jobs. Most of us are actively participating in the camp clubs and organizations. Our battery furnishes valuable material for the musical, recreational, and spiritual groups in our camp.

Phegley is an outstanding athlete. Running close behind him, we find English, Strawbridge, Knaub, Malone, Feldhaus and Strole. Leopold works hard as athletic manager. It is almost time for mess. I'll write more in a short time.

Dear Dad,

At last I am a soldier. Our company of rookies was received at the Recruiting Center of R.H.S. where we were lined up for inspection by General Holt. He introduced us to our officers. From there we went to the supply warehouse (drugstores) where we were allotted our khaki and denim (English and algebra) barracks bags and raincoats (Latin and biology) mess kits and tent halves (Home Ec. and Ind. Arts.) From the warehouse we went back to the "Theater" (classrooms) and began our series of intelligence tests.

As we were on our way to the barracks that afternoon two orderlies (seniors) seized us and the show was on. We were taken on a ten mile hike. At ten o'clock it was lights out and blanket drill (sleep) for us.

We really are enthusiastic about this life. We don't do much goldbricking as our superiors keep us pretty busy. This morning we received notice that we were in order for a promotion. I'll tell you more about it later.

Your son,

Cliff

SUNSHINE

Dear Jim,

I wish you would tell the girls back home what the S. S. (Super Sunshiners) are doing for the morale of our soldiers. They plan amateur hours, Christmas parties, dances, roll bandages, assist the Riley Hospital, and do many other valuable things. When our spirits are at their lowest ebb, along some one of them will come with ice cream or hot dogs to help us forget our aches and pains. They are a grand bunch and their leaders are Marjorie Jones, Ann Smith, Mary Jo Hermanson, Ann Parkison, Helen Feldhaus and sponsor, Miss Kresler. Tell them to keep up the good work.

So long,

Ralph

HI-Y

Dear Mom and Pop,

This G. I. life is really O. K. as I have told you in my previous letters. The Hi-Y is the guiding light of our camp. Mr. Holt, the civilian in charge, is well acquainted with all the fellows here and sponsors their club. The club has four fine officers: President, Max Overton; Vice President, Ralph McColly (detailed to special duty in the air force); Secretary, Kenneth Brooks; and Treasurer, Russell Strawbridge.

Some of the many things they do for the morale here are the Hi-Y Banquet and Dance, interesting convocation programs, selling cokes at all home games, and printing the schedule cards of the basketball games. All in all, the Hi-Y Club is a great contributor to the success of R. H. S.

Max

Sitting on my G. I. bed,
My G. I. hat upon my head.
My G. I. pants, my G. I. rules,
G. I. long for my farm tools,
G. I. razor and G. I. combs—
G. I. wish that I was home.

They issue everything you need,
Paper to write on, books to read,
Your belt, your socks, your G. I. tie—
It's all free, nothing to buy,
They issue us food that makes us grow,
G. I. want a furlough.

We eat our food from a G. I. plate,
But Kelly, Amsler, Miller, Handley rate.
They direct our show with Mr. Bundy's aid.
Out go the lights, it's an air raid,
So long for this time, I'm sure blue,
G. I. wish I could see you.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

Dear Enriquez,

Since I have been your pen pal for ~~so~~ long, I have tried to follow a few of your suggestions. Yes, we do have a club that studies carefully international relationships. I agree with you that they are an especially vital topic these days. We have tried to help the rest of our classmates realize this too by giving them interesting speakers and programs. They liked them. Our officers were Jean Felder, Jo Ann Roy, Joan Reeve, and Mrs. Stump.

I don't suppose we'll get to meet for a long time, but some time I hope to see you in Argentina.

Your friend,

Jack

G. A. A.

Dear Mom,

I have just finished watching the G.A.A. go through their new obstacle course. Can they jake it! It is surprising how these "bits of femininity" can come through when Uncle Sam needs them. They have adopted a National Health Program for physical fitness. Their officers in charge were: Marjorie Phares, Stella Smith, Shirley Lintner, and Miss Stoner.

Every Thursday night the G.A.A. meets for a recreation period in which games of all kinds are enjoyed. You should see how much they can endure now. I'm sure they'll be an addition to Uncle Sam's armed forces.

So long 'till next time,

Jane

RENSSELAERIEN

Hello sis,

I thought I'd drop you a line to tell you about our camp's newspaper. It is my job to edit all the copy, delete all classified military intelligence, and take out all the nasty cracks about the first sergeants. I have to write headlines for all the stories and place them wherever there is space. Then I have to draw everything up into a pretty attractive page. Boy I'm telling you it is tedious and nerve-racking work, but I prefer it to K. P. duty.

I have some grand assistants by the name of Felder, Reeve, Jacks, Roy, Kurtz, D. Nuss, Jones, Brooks, Murray, and Miss Norris. I'll send you a copy sometime.

Love,

Johnny

CHAOS

Dear dad,

Being a publisher I thought you might like to hear about the yearbook our company is putting out. It is issued every nine months and that means a new set making it up each time. It's chuck full of snaps of everyone in the platoon doing every kind of work, even K. P., and has stories and even a day-by-day calendar in it. They have me doing the dirty work of typing the jokes, stories, etc. that go in it. There are four companies that help to put it out. A hostess, Miss Kresler, comes over from the canteen and does the assembling job, among other things. There are quite a few on the staff. Each one's job usually corresponds with what he did in civilian life. The staff is Hoshaw, Boyle, Nesbitt, D. Nuss, Hershman, Roy, Hoover, and Kurtz. Gotta go to chow, be sure to write.

Love,

Willoughby

BAND

Dear Mom,

Since victory depends largely on our morale, the Treasury Star Parade of R. H. S. is doing its bit. Marching down the road to victory under the direction of Mr. Shadley, our band has had a very successful year. Many of our soldiers participated in the Bond Rally Program, Our Awards Program, Spring Festival, Infantile Paralysis Fund Program and Commencement. For the first time in history, our director is awarding merit badges to privates and corporals who have progressed the most. At the tune of a heart-stirring march my mind wanders home to you and dad listening to your radio. I hope I can join you soon.

Your loving son,

Phil.

CHORUS

Dear Marilyn.

Our Hollywood Caravan R.H.S. has in the past year traveled to every known war front. It has entertained the soldiers of Camp Rensselaer with various interesting rallies and song festivals. At Commencement, the last evening of the year when the old crowd sang together for the last time, tears filled our eyes. We knew that many of the boys would be going soon from civilian to military life. With a song in their hearts, they'll succeed.

Mr. Shadley directed us, and I don't care if I do say so myself we've really had a successful year.

Affectionately,

Betty

SCIENCE AND MATH

Dear Max,

A few of the men of our company were selected for the Advanced Technical Training Corps where we reported for training under Miller and Mohr. We were all scared of this new assignment for it meant that great things were expected of us. A mistake here meant a large sack of potatoes in the battery kitchen. You have no idea of the tactics and special skills we acquired here.

We held many interesting discussions during the training period. Our leaders were Max Overton, Ralph Smith, and James Hoover. Photography, radio and other scientific materials were studied. Our acquired knowledge will be an asset to us in the post war world of tomorrow.

Must close and get to work,

Ralph

F. C. A.

Dear Paul,

You should see the construction gang here at Camp R. H. S.—They are really something. They're neither Army, Navy, nor Marines but a fusion of all three. Remember that club back in high school days—you were Sec. Treas. and I was President? Let's see, wasn't Ed Hudson vice president? This is a lot like it, only you should see the top sergeant. He reminds you of Harrison in the old days. They no more get things built up when along comes a demolition squad to tear it down. They say that the F. C. A. (that's what we call them) are the richest bunch around here. I don't know whether it is from work or not—whoops-what AM I saying? Smells like french-fried mothballs (hominy to you) for chow and I just love 'em, Ugh!! Be seein' you.

Joe

Dear Max,

From a shady spot near the parade grounds I sat and watched the football battery going through calisthenics. Some were tall and fat; some were lean. With beautiful precision, the boys swung their arms up, down, to the left, to the right. They went through the quarter, half, and full knee bends, shoulder exercises and the rest of the routine.

"These boys are really improving," shouted Lt. Franklin to Lt. Harrison.

"Result of hard work," the latter replied.

Yes, as a result of precision plays and hard work our Bombers had a good season. We only had a few veterans on our team. Max Overton was our key man at center position. Gratner and Feldhaus were guards; Robinson, English, Cleaveland were tackles. Our air attack was cleverly handled by Green, a line bucking fullback; Bahler, a quarterback; Lintner and Putts, fast ends. Much yardage was gained by Teach, Hoover, and Hudson.

Max Overton and Joe Putts were elected co-captains. Our team formulated its own training rules.

I thought you'd like to hear all this news about your team mates. I have to hurry so I'll just enclose a schedule of our season's scores.

Dear Beano,

Did I get on KP three times this week? Yes, I did and it was all the corporal's fault. I right-faced a few times when I was supposed to left face. I zigged when I should have zagged. Our battery tried to do well and drill master Franklin rewarded us for our effort. Our record for the season was not bad.

We had one bad casualty. Pvt. Jim Bahler suffered a knee injury which hospitalized him for weeks. We played the teams of the nearby camps for the most part but we did travel as far as Gary. Here is a schedule of our victories and defeats.

Second row: Hoover, English, Peregrine, Ford, Bowman, Dawson, Urbanczyk, Strawbridge.

Dear Pat,

Just got back from an obstacle course and WHEW!! Am I on the down-beat? Our coach, Mr. Knabb, and Captain, Duke Bowman, sure set a fast pace. We have hurdles to cross, streams to jump and ditches to wade. It really reminded me of high school track. Remember those seven 1943 meets we entered. We always came home with many wins. Thanks to Bowman and Ford; and we mustn't forget Brooks with those hurdles. Well, guess I better hurdle myself over to the kitchen for K. P. (nice thought) So long.

Mike.

ACHIEVEMENT

LINCOLN SAID

With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us light to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widows and orphans—to do all which may ACHIEVE and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations.

Dear Butch,

On September 6 sixty-three of our seasoned veterans returned for duty determined to succeed in the final phase of their high school careers. Feeling the increasing pressure of the war, some of the battalion withdrew before the close of the term to enter Uncle Sams armed services.

Mr. Knaub and Miss McCord were our efficient commanding officers. Do you remember them? Our top ranking football players were Putts, Overton, Green, Bahler, Smith, Cleveland, and Gates. There was no gold-bricking for these stalwart grid heroes.

Our fellow Seniors are covered with chest hardwood for their outstanding achievement in a Bond and Stamp Sales campaign. The class ranked third in Indiana in its sales. Butch, they already know that there is no blanket drill awpiting them. They are marching in a world at war waiting for the time when the final bomb will fall and the final peace will be written.

Better stop praising our classmates and get to work. Here comes the tough sergeant.

See you soon,

Jim

Number 1

CLASS OF "44" ANNIVERSARY WEEK!!

An Editorial

Fifteen years ago today a small class marched boldly down the aisle of a little school of Rensselaer, Indiana. It was war time and in their hearts was the will to surmount all difficulties and build a better world. Some of their accomplishments would startle even Bob Ripley.

Bob Cleaveland became an engineer and is now building bridges for pedestrians; he always felt sorry for pedestrians ever since Al Nagel took him for a ride. Al is a number one auto racer now . . . Barbara Parkinson never planned on it, but she just couldn't help becoming the world's fastest typist . . . Max Overton, Walt Teach and Einstein are having quite a battle over Einstein's theory, poor Einstein . . . Dave Grater liked the navy so well he just stayed—he especially liked the idea of a girl in every port . . . Donald Walter and Don Gwin have succeeded Bob Hope for Pepsi . . . Helen Feldhaus has won American hearts with her singing at the Panther Room . . . Incidentally Paul Gates has quite a band—he can be heard every night over W. B. X. Y. . . . Jim Hoover, much to the surprise of his followers, gave up his band and is now a successful business man in his home town . . . Vernon Johnson has become a renowned world traveler and is conducting an expedition into an unexplored jungle . . . For Rodney and Joan wedding bells tolled and they still ride around in perfect bliss . . . Jean Felder had good intentions for a business career. She carried them through—she married her boss . . . Wilma Katzbach is bringing down the house with her piano and is closely competing with Jose Iturbi. She is on tour and at present can be heard in St. Joe, Mo.

Many of our boys preferred military and navy life to civilian and remained in it following the peace of 1945. Ralph McColly is flying high with the rank of Colonel in the Air Corps. The Army claims such prizes as Bill Daniels and Tom Eldridge. The Navy is very proud of Lt. (s. g.) Bob Shook . . . Joe Putts is an American Airline pilot with his home in the South Seas. As a side line, he runs a flying school and has made quite a hit with his debutante students. . . Bob Klinefelter liked the navy but finally chose to remain with Hancock and Co. . . . Doctors Ralph Smith and Jim Bahler are operating quite a successful business with Marie Martin as Dr. Smith's assistant . . . Milton Parkinson is a veteran of the navy now—Uncle Sam couldn't get along without him. . . Jean Overton is principal of a high school in Gary . . . Jim Amsler operates a grooming house for show hogs . . . Margene Askren and Alverta Cain have a cooking and sewing school for men. It is doing quite well (for them) . . . Vivian Hamer, Marjean Topp, and Pauline Knouff operate a delicatessen in the Loop . . . Glen Hancock holds the managership of the A & P store. . . Wilda Hitchings is a very efficient secretary to President Becno Green of the Hold-Tight-and-Squeeze-Em-Till-They're Dead Mouse Trap Co. . . . Marjorie Jones is an instructor of accounting at International . . . Eileen Washburn is a buyer for Ayres in Indianapolis and Joe Lane is chief electrician there . . . Mary Shide is a kindergarten teacher at Monnett School . . . Betty Misch now owns a part in the Critser Brother's Trucking Company . . . Bernelle Simpson is very happy with Claude and their little exemptions. . . Marvin E. and Marvin G. Miller have gone into seclusion because of a mix-up in their love affairs. It seems the love letters always went to the wrong one . . . Delos Kelly operates a 500 acre farm near Rensselaer . . . Emma Mae Pierson runs a matrimonial bureau with Wilda Rockwell as first assistant . . . Marvin Luers gave up women a long time ago and is the county's number one bachelor . . . Mary Ellen Ames and Jean Murphy own a twin apparel shop and outfit girls desirous of being alike . . . Betty Waling operates a school for children . . . Lola Scheurich owns a stable in Central Park . . . Betty Lear is still receiving letters from "Dewey" and wishing he'd come back from Haiti . . . Russell Thompson has been granted a professorship in the chemistry department of Chicago University. He is doing research on anti-red and anti-grey hair vitamins . . . Junie Reeve is a dietitian in the Pentagon Building . . . Marjorie Phares tried her darndest to be a model but she finally just married a photographer and hoped for the best . . . Helen Salyers returned to Kentucky as a social service worker to better conditions there . . . Betty Kurtz is advertising executive for this paper. She is known for her simplicity and wit . . . Jo Ann Roy writes editorials for a competing paper.
